

Reconvening Nuremberg – by whatever means necessary

By Olaf Childress

editor@firstfreedom.net

Back in the 1960s, before our enemies consolidated plans to exterminate us with “immigration reforms” and other insidious maneuvers, supporters of White civilization’s continuance paid hard cash for nightly radio and TV proclamations opposing the Zionists’ “If it feels good, do it” dogma. One such spot asked parents: “It’s ten o’clock. Do you know where your children are?” Another urged the self-governed thinker to remember that “More things are wrought by prayer than this world dreams of.”

Mountains of money, not logic, grabbed people’s attention between the two battling worldviews – which easily determined the direction public broadcasting should take. And that’s where we find ourselves today.

Vigilant difference

Perhaps you won’t appreciate a few, or even many, of our ideas about what caused these United States to wander from their founding principles, but surely you’ve seen it’s a fact. With all those liberal voices touting “diversity” as “our strength,” let’s challenge why they are then mocking, attempting to destroy everything we hold dear. Though most correspondents published in alternate newspapers startle and jar one’s complacency, isn’t it about time folks paid more attention even to “radical” solutions that truly diverge from what’s not working – just for the sake of open-mindedness, if nothing else?

The foremost problem we fight against at every turn wasn’t originally “the Jew,” as many Whites along with other shabbos goyim are always ready to help him exploit our vulnerabilities. It’s the fact that those delegated to control the coinage of money handed this constitutional mandate, via the Federal Reserve Act, over to a corporation owned by the Warburgs and Rothschilds, whose cash then forced the major media to consider such treachery non-news. So let us recover those two bottlenecks through which all commerce in goods, services and ideas must transit. Gird up, for this War on Misinformation requires getting to better know both the enemy and ourselves. As Sun Tzu teaches, thus instructed we shall never be defeated in battle.

Immensity beckons

Our mobilization should consider what the better-informed White man knows and knows that he knows when comparing such minute awareness with his thereby realized vast ignorance of phenomena waiting to be discovered. Hiding for untold eons in plain sight, the implication is profound.

His only crime was to claim that planet Earth revolved around the Sun. That was enough cause for the Catholic Church to persecute Galileo. The Vatican condemned him in 1633 for his putatively subversive views, and threatened the scientist with a burning at the stake. Galileo took back his statement, but still lived under house arrest for the rest of his life.

Yet some readers accuse us of heresy for proclaiming simultaneously our State of Alabama's right to display a monument heralding the Ten Commandments while arguing what should be obvious: that those texts – however inspired – were written by men, not God. Media munchkins, tell the truth: you don't really want diversity.

So far beyond our ken as to make every comparison with anything the brightest of humans might theorize (which is the alpha and omega of theocracy), God does exist. Pray for guidance. Experiencing the results will sanctify that secret place. And, should a man feel "called," he can evangelize his hypothesis out to others by whatever new doctrine, as has happened throughout the ages.

Crucial moment

Many today, both believers and atheists, opine the biblical Jews foisted Christianity upon Rome in revenge for the latter having shut down their occupation of that juncture connecting three continents: the bottleneck of commerce between Africa, Europe and Asia; which, if true, didn't pay as expected. For the Roman Empire's fall resulted more from growing decadence than its temples worshipping God under a new doctrine, and two consecutive millennia thereafter found the Jews hoist by their own petard.

A fact we can see and presently know is that method does exist in what a pessimist deems madness but we optimists consider the sine qua non of life on earth. Without this constant challenge – whether from bad weather, pestilence, mediocracy, invading Norseman, erupting volcano or the Federal Reserve's usury – one exercises no muscle or wit against what doesn't threaten, nor gets better prepared for its possible return. "Mother Nature" sorts out, eliminates the inconsequential and elevates survivors to greater competence. She abhors a vacuum. Should everyone who calls himself a Jew suddenly be overcome in a fit of honesty and abdicate that imposture, others would immediately leap into the gap. Who in his right mind can deny the wonderful balance and symmetry before everyone's eyes? All that is needed for the continuance of your White race is active regeneration, but only the universe comes with a guarantee.

Change

Seeing was believing. Through millions of years the sun orbited this world. Came one Cristoforo Colombo and, unlike later theorists who had the current of electricity backwards, he and Copernicus turned at least a few erroneous ideas around.

Challenges we are equal to beckon, so why sit around complaining rather than grabbing onto such chances? Shlomo Sand and others breaking ranks have researched all the facts, their writings enlightening the occupiers of today's establishment media, Palestine and the mandate stolen from our Founders who originally created debt-free money – that they aren't the biblical Jews.

As a subscriber you may not appreciate these alternate newspapers constantly doubting any likelihood of "voting" our way out of this quandary the country is in, but you'll stay informed regarding other options the liberal establishment won't mention except when calling Nationalists names.

Stacked deck of cards

Although the mediocracy confuses truth with hate, says morality is "homophobia," hails the New York-District of Corruption axis's Wars on Poverty (taxed producers), Racism (freedom of association), Drugs (one's responsibility) and Non-Rothschild Banking (State sovereignty), this one of a kind tabloid calls a spade a spade while looking beyond today's gloom and doom merchants who keep digging themselves deeper into servitude. Our kind sees a bright future for however many or few alert Whites will assert themselves.

Ah! The word "White" shocks, does it? Yet all those "diverse" entities supported by the establishment, which is collecting and redistributing your tax dollars, passing them on to La Raza, LGBT parades, Black Lives Matter, the Black Congressional Caucus and still hundreds of others whose names roll off the leftist media munchkin's tongue adoringly, have lately become no less familiar than the rising sun and for the same reason: daily repetition. Those foxes "guarding" every major media henhouse keep advocating the acceptance of what's morally unacceptable – while condemning our healthier, happier, more honest and courageous virtues. You've perhaps heard mention of this problem psychologists call cognitive dissonance, where a person will refuse to even consider any argument that questions something he "knows" because "everybody agrees" (at least according to The Daily Foxtrot) "it's a fact." But why not consider certain positions against such brainwashing, in-your-face and ubiquitous imagery, thereby reassuring yourself that you're not into cognitive dissonance?

Everybody a partisan

Gone are the days of unbiased research and reporting, if indeed ever there existed anyone totally unencumbered by baggage. Do you not stand for something? Chicago saw its Daily Tribune fighting tooth and nail to stop the federal government's plans for jumping into both world wars, but that once-conservative newspaper then fell into a Jewish billionaire's hands. Almost every large American city at one time had no fewer than two competing daily papers, but today's assembly-line, harnessed remnants are celebrating holocaustic solidarity, only the internet and tabloids like the one you're reading giving them any kind of a run for their mountains of money.

James Thomas Laffrey informs readers at his whiteswillwinparty.org who might wish to review what we post online that "the site looks lamely old-style, but there are good articles linked to authors' names near the top... Also, at the bottom of the homepage there are links to recent pdf files of their newspaper that they actually publish and distribute. I have downloaded and read many issues. Problem: This handsome publication offers a contradictory variety of original articles, historical articles (example: excerpts from Henry Ford's The International Jew)... websites such as Incogman.net and photos. Mostly right against jews, good on race, good on Adolf Hitler and more. But pacifism rears its suicidal head, likely as a result of the mind-poison of Christianity espoused there. In mid 2014 I sent an email to the editor. I offered free use of articles from this website, and I asked why he espouses pacifism. His single, awfully brief reply was to ignore my one question and to only say he would have a look at this site... Meanwhile, his newspaper has published more garbage from news corporations and pacifists."

In rebuttal

Contradictory articles? Since when does learning from variously-informed Whites – or occasionally the awakened Black who offers something worth considering – not qualify for our attention? Real journalism is open, allows the possibility that another and totally surprising orbit may yet await discovery, whereby Jews killing us or we them genocides neither into a total eclipse.

Somebody please tell Mr. Laffrey that, at Nuremberg II, we needn't bring charges against, convict and hang every individual worldwide who calls himself a Jew. Those having given nothing more than consent to the Irgun gangsters and Neo-Cons pushing "our" presidents and troops into bombing Israel's victims, seeing their leaders dangle from scaffolds, will quieten down. Peace is the short interlude in which a White society as contemplated by Laffrey and ourselves rediscovers that golden mean between too much and not enough. First come the trials and hangings, then our regrouping.

Does this recalling of precedent law – if it involves White Americans in a National Socialist movement overthrowing today’s Zionist occupation of the U. S. government – suggest an evolving Police State? What do you think we’ve got now? It kicked into high gear in 1945 at Nuremberg!

Thus our Zog-controlled public schools confuse students’ thinking, twisting words into obtuse new meanings where deviance from what’s normal becomes “gaiety” and European-founded America is “welcome center for everyone in the Third World who can’t find happiness at home.” Let’s reopen a pre-peecee dictionary at nation (Nā’chen), n. [<Ofer. < L. nation < pp. of NASI, to be born], 1. a stable, historically developed community of people with a territory, economic life, culture and language in common. 2. the people of a territory united under a single government: country. 3. a people or tribe.

where we plainly see there’s not a single mention for tribal “diversity” within such a stable, historically developed community sharing a common territory, economic life, culture and language. Yet diverse Nations do make up this world, and let’s keep it that way.

Ebony appeals to Blacks and Haaretz is for Jews, while our alternate newspapers (dare we say it?) prayerfully advocate a White Nation’s sovereign existence. Once we’ve convicted and hanged Eisenhower’s New World Disorder, let us revive such a stable, historically-developed community and, by example, demonstrate certain benefits to other peoples for noninterference into our internal affairs when staying out of theirs.

Natural selection

It’s a White thing; Western civilization always was. We’re not expecting the other races to share in this understanding of the immense task before us, but a true diversity of Nations will be good for their survivors too, eventually.

Competence, when bound by civilized rules, isn’t just the spice of life but its very essence. To attain true diversity, let today’s forcefully “integrated” races peacefully go apart, even if some non-Whites don’t care for dismounting Whitey’s back. In contrast to The Chicago Tribune’s unipolar world, a Bantu or Aryan will then face solely his own kind anytime vying for whatever, no more packaging apples and oranges in a common crate labeled “Fruit.”

Our final answer to The Jewish Problem can never exist. In 1290 King Edward I of England issued an edict expelling all Jews, but then Oliver Cromwell later carried out the orders of his Amsterdam financiers in 1656 when beheading King Charles II and letting them back in.

A Genghis Khan (1162-1227), aided by databases, drone craft and might-is-right warriors, could today kill every person on earth who thinks he's a Jew and tomorrow we would have a Khan Problem. You don't defeat the enemy by becoming him. But, if it were possible to revive a King Edward I for another temporary reprieve by hanging all of our war criminals and sending their lieutenants back to Amsterdam, something like that would be momentarily welcome.

Cleaning, not razing, house

Zio-Khan organized mobsters, like bad weather, pestilence, mediocracy, invading Norseman, erupting volcano or the Federal Reserve's usury, are there to challenge our wits and survival skill, without which tests we shall never increase in virtue, morality, integrity, numbers or separate territories.

Here true success lies not in "fighting fire with fire," as that raging inferno facing us is all illusion; it has no real heat. We must stop replying to its "WTF" language in kind. The enemy has no other recruiting device, so why not stare him down? Expect his temporary diminution: boycott, divest and sanction this wandering Jew until he goes bluffing for a while elsewhere, during which time our White Nation's remnants might live again perhaps harmoniously for centuries unmolested by him.

The First Freedom